

Subdivision application:

This application is the first step in the paperwork process for the development of a subdivision in Beauregard Parish. It can be sent to the Police Jury Administrator for review prior to the submittal of any plats. This information assists both the Police Jury and the Developer by addressing all issues for consideration prior to the development.

The next step will be the submission of the preliminary plat that will be brought before the Police Jury for approval as set forth in the Subdivision Ordinance as addressed in the link below.

There is no cost for this application.
